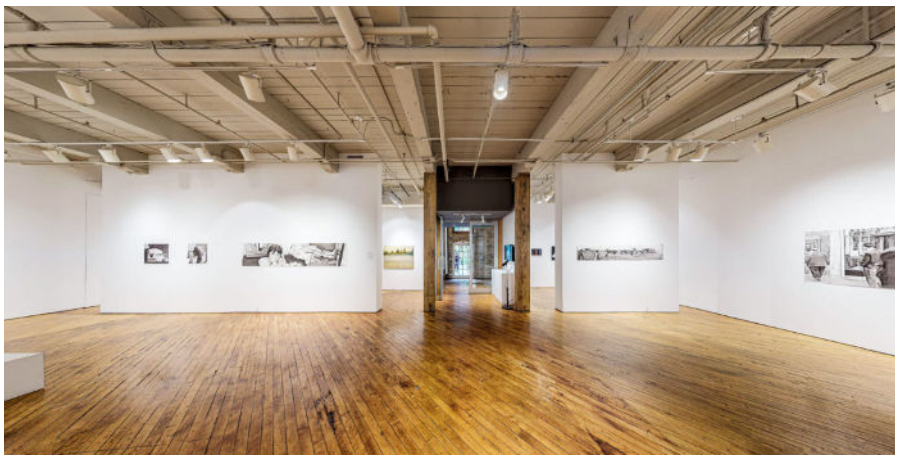
About ABBOZZO GALLERY AND 401 RICHMOND

Located at the corner of Spadina and Richmond in downtown Toronto, 401 has fostered workspace, exhibition space, facilities, and services to local, national, and international artists since 1994. The building is a restored turn-of-the-century industrial building that has become a hub of cultural production with close to 135 tenants contributing in various ways to Toronto's culture, commerce, and creativity. This architecturally and historically significant building provides dynamic spaces not only for the arts but also for social and event-driven uses. Abbozzo Gallery was established in 1993 to represent regional, Canadian and International artists. The gallery exhibits Contemporary paintings, prints, works on paper and sculptures in a warm and inviting setting in the heart of Toronto.



CELEBRATIONS

Plan your special occasion with us. Birthday parties, bridal or baby showers, and cocktail events, feature beautifully in this historic and elegant space.

CORPORATE EVENTS

Located conveniently downtown, book this space for networking events, meet - and – greets, panels and seminars. With room for both theatre seating and a cocktail area, your corporate event will stand out against this beautiful backdrop.
